Sustainability Talks Writing Retreat

We are delighted to announce the Sustainability Talks Writing Retreat Scholarships, designed to attract the most talented doctoral students pursuing their studies within sustainability.

Sustainability Talks is a transdisciplinary initiative at Uppsala University Campus Gotland working towards increased awareness, knowledge creation and co-operations within the area of sustainability. As part of our work we are offering 4 scholarships to doctoral students with a passion for working on today's most important research challenges.

Besides the possibilities to meet other engaged doctoral students within your field of study, the scholarship includes writing space at the university, housing in an apartment in central Visby and ferry tickets. The writing retreat will take place during 9th to 15th April, 2018. All accepted doctorates will be asked to participate in a seminar about their on-going research during the retreat.

Please send your application, including a short description of your thesis work (max 500 words) and your CV (max 2 pages), on 30th January, the latest.

Send your application to jenny.helin@fek.uu.se.

Welcome!
